

Infect Dis Trop Med

Special Issue (SI) Proposal

To present a Special Issue for consideration in the Infectious Disease and Tropical Medicine, kindly provide the requested information below.

Special Issue Title:

---

Topic:

---

Relevance to the Journal and Aims of the SI:

---

---

---

---

Number of publications (please note that a maximum of 20 articles are allowed):

---

List of Authors:

Name	Institutional e-mail	ORCIDID

* Note that: If guest editors maintain personal or professional relationships with authors from whom they commission content, it may result in bias during the article selection process.

Guest Editors:

- Candidate Guest Editors are expected to possess international renown and expertise in the topics addressed by the Special Issue.
- Articles submitted to a special issue by the guest editor(s) must undergo a separate review process and should constitute no more than 25% of the total content of the issue.

Name	Affiliation	Institutional e-mail	Personal information (e.g., qualifications)	ORCID ID

In addition, please provide a brief résumé for each guest editor and include any prior publications and/or special issues with this form.

* Note that: The guest editors of the collection are required to furnish statements regarding any conflicts of interest (real, potential, or perceived) pertaining to the research topic.

List of Reviewers:

Name	Affiliation	Institutional e-mail	ORCID ID

Possible Contributors:

Expected 1st Submission Date:

---

Expected last Submission Date:

---

Expected Publication date:

---

Articles' abstracts: (attach a file to the present form)

---

The proposal will be evaluated by the Editorial Office and the Editor-in-Chief, who will make the final decision.

By signing this agreement, you acknowledge your agreement with the Journal's guidelines concerning peer-review management and commit to adhering to said guidelines.

Main Guest Editor

Editor-in-Chief
Giuseppe Nunnari, MD, Ph.D, MPH